The following resolution was passed, unanimously.
STATEMENT OF SUPPORT FOR UB’s TEACHING ASSISTANTS

Whereas the United University Professions Buffalo Center Chapter membership meeting in Buffalo, New York on October 25, 2017, learned that stipend levels for Teaching Assistants at the University at Buffalo are currently often less than $14,000 yearly, and

Whereas for the 2016-17 academic year the University says the minimum a graduate student needs to live for the nine-months of attendance, excluding tuition and fees, is $20,584,

Therefore, BE IT RESOLVED that

The UUP Buffalo Center Chapter membership expresses its strong support for the efforts of the Movement for a Living Stipend led by Teaching Assistants at the University at Buffalo and urges President Tripathi, Provost Zukowski and the UB administration to quickly raise TA stipends to a level equivalent to a livable level and so directs the UUP Chapter President to state UUP’s position to the UB administration, and further

The UUP Buffalo Center Chapter membership directs its Chapter President to circulate, on the Chapter’s Notification list and the Chapter’s newsletter, this statement of support for the Movement for a Living Stipend.
