

UUP INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT AWARD (IDA)

Questions & Answers

PLEASE READ PRIOR TO STARTING THE IDA APPLICATION

When are the applications due?

All applications are due no later than Friday, February 11 at 5pm. There will be no extensions.

How do I submit my application?

Applications must be submitted directly to the UUP office (Room BSB 2-71P). Please answer all questions or write “N/A”. Keep in mind that incomplete applications will not be considered.

What is the activity period?

Each activity must occur within the period of July 2, 2021 to July 1, 2022.

What is the Maximum award amount?

The maximum award amount for the Individual Development Awards for this cycle is $2000. The actual award reimbursement amount is based on the total number of members applying and the receipts that are submitted. Your reimbursement may be less than the amount that you request.

Can I submit for more than one activity?

Yes. You can submit for up to a maximum of 2 activities, however, you must submit a separate application for each activity.

If I submit 2 activities can I get more than $2000?

No. The total of the 2 activities should not exceed $2000. Any amount above $2000 will not be reimbursed.

What are the eligible activities?

- Registration fees, travel and related expenses (including lodging and meals) for conferences, seminars or workshops related to your job or the SUNY mission.
- Tuition (not covered by the UUP/SUNY tuition waiver) for courses related to your job or the SUNY mission at the maximum allowable SUNY rate at the time of application. University fees are not reimbursable. Any course submitted on an application that is covered by a tuition waiver will be rejected.
- Courses related to preparing for maintaining licensure. Licensure exam fees are not eligible. However, there is a special program for 1st time licensure preparation known as CLEFR. 1st time licensure applicants should apply to that program instead. For more information visit: <https://goer.ny.gov/nysuupclefr>
- Basic, applied, or historical research projects.

If I'm approved, how do I get the money?

The award is in the form of a reimbursement. You have to pay for the eligible activity first and then submit the required supporting documents when requested.

Will I receive a check?

No. All awards are distributed via direct deposit unless you are separated from the institution after you have been approved. In that case, you may receive a check. All current employees will receive direct deposit.

Does the payment come in direct deposit with my salary?

Payments are processed on a rolling basis and will probably not show up in the same deposit as your regular pay.

When will I be notified of my status?

You will be notified as soon as the NY Governor's Office of Employee Relations (GOER) has completed their final audit of the applications which may be sometime between late March and mid-April.

When will I receive my reimbursement?

Vouchers are processed on a rolling basis and can take several weeks. Incomplete vouchers or packets that are missing supporting documents will be delayed or returned.

Who do I contact if I have further questions?
