

How Professionals Can Fight Workload Creep!

HELPFUL HINTS

- 1 Understand the basic principles that apply to your professional obligation.
- 2 Discuss your job duties with your supervisor as your Performance Program is being developed.
- 3 Make sure you have a current Performance Program that accurately reflects your professional obligation.
- 4 Be sure you are able to perform all of the duties in your Performance Program. Ask for training, if needed.
- 5 Consult with the chapter leadership if you have questions.
- 6 Document workload increases:
 - Keep a log of work done in areas that are subject to workload creep.
 - Document that you have taken on additional workload for specific reasons/projects—and note that you do not consider it to be part of your professional obligation going forward.
 - Make sure your Performance Program is modified to reflect workload increases, identifying extra work in relation to previous years.
- 7 A change in duties and responsibilities may warrant a promotion, salary increase, reduction in other duties, extra service pay or compensatory time.
- 8 Consider requesting a salary increase or promotion when you feel it is warranted, especially if your Performance Program shows an increase in duties and responsibilities.
- 9 If additional duties are added to your Performance Program, ask for others to be removed or for a salary increase.
- 10 If you are denied a salary increase or promotion, you can appeal the denial to the College Review Panel.

Participate in Workload/Performance Program workshops run by your labor relations specialist.
